IV. Unfinished Business:

- a. The Board of Commissioners held this special meeting to review candidate backgrounds and to determine a viable candidate to move forward with to attend the January 9th academy at SLEA.
- b. Detective Barker informed the Board that there were two candidates that were deceitful and evading with their background responses. Officer Henderson informed the Board that one of the candidates never responded to an inquiry regarding interest in moving forward into the background process. Commissioner Sadowski motioned to reject these candidates from consideration. Commissioner Kenney, seconded, all were in favor.
- c. Commander Martin, Detective Barker and Officer Henderson informed the Board regarding their review of one candidate that had positive traits, responses and work history. They both recommended that the Board extend a conditional offer to candidate Karen Ruiz-Salgado. Commissioner Trinski motioned to accept the candidate and extend to her a conditional offer of employment, Commissioner Kenney seconded, all were in favor.

V. New Business:

- a. Commissioner Kenney explained that in regards to an open enrollment style of application and testing for new recruits, the Commission attorney stated that since the Village of Fox Lake is not a Home Rule town, under statute, that open enrollment testing is not a possibility for the Village of Fox Lake.
